

each production area, to another production area or to points outside thereof.

§ 998.33 Inspection, certification and identification.

Each handler shall, at his own expense, prior to or upon receiving and before shipping or disposing of peanuts, cause an inspection to be made of any such peanuts not covered by a valid inspection certificate, to determine whether they meet the applicable grade requirements effective pursuant to this agreement and shall comply with such identification requirements as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe. Such handler shall obtain a certificate that such peanuts meet the aforementioned applicable requirements and all such certificates shall be available for examination or use by the committee. Acceptable certificates shall be those issued by Federal or Federal-State inspectors authorized or licensed by the Secretary.

§ 998.34 Modification.

The requirements of §§ 998.31 and 998.32 and definitions set forth in § 998.5, (b), (c), and (d) may be modified by the Secretary, upon recommendation of the committee or other information, whenever he finds that such modification would tend to effectuate the objectives of this agreement.

§ 998.35 Above parity situations.

Minimum standards established under §§ 998.31 and 998.32, the grading and inspection requirements, and the provisions of this agreement relating to administration and indemnification shall continue in effect irrespective of whether or not the estimated season average price for peanuts is in excess of the parity level specified in section 2(1) of the Act.

§ 998.36 Indemnification.

The committee shall, upon such terms and conditions as it may establish with the approval of the Secretary, indemnify any handler, to the extent specified, for losses incurred by him on peanuts which have been milled for sale for human consumption and which meet the applicable grade and other requirements but which are determined by the committee or the U.S. Food and Drug Administration to be unsuitable for human consumption because of aflatoxin including such peanuts returned, resold or rejected to a handler by a purchaser. Any peanuts for which the handler is indemnified pursuant to this paragraph shall be delivered to the committee or disposed of as the committee may direct. Funds for such indemnification shall be obtained pursuant to § 998.48. The period of indemnification on any crop may extend to December 31 of the calendar year following the year in which the crop was produced.

REPORTS, BOOKS AND RECORDS

§ 998.40 Confidential information.

All reports and records furnished or submitted by handlers to the committee which include data or information constituting a trade secret or disclosing the trade position, financial condition, or business operations of the particular handlers or their customers shall be received by, and at all times kept in the custody and under the control of, one or more employees of the committee, who shall disclose such information to no person except the Secretary. Notwithstanding the above provisions of this section, information may be disclosed to the committee when reasonably necessary to enable the committee to carry out its functions under this agreement.

§ 998.41 Reports of acquisitions and shipments.

Each handler shall file such reports of his acquisitions and shipments of peanuts, as may be requested by the committee.

§ 998.42 Other reports.

Upon the request of the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, each handler shall furnish such other reports and information as are needed to enable the committee to perform its functions under this agreement.
